High Point Networks Named 2021 North Central Region Partner of the Year by Arctic Wolf

West Fargo, ND based Business Recognized by Security Operations Leader

West Fargo, ND – (June 9, 2021) – High Point Networks has been named Arctic Wolf's Partner of the Year for the North Central region. This honor recognizes the company's commitment to improving its customers' cybersecurity posture through a strategic partnership with Arctic Wolf that focuses on business growth and planning, engagement and training, demand gen, and executive and security practice alignment.

"We are honored to be named Arctic Wolf's North Central Partner of the Year. The teams at Arctic Wolf are easy to work with, knowledgeable and their solutions fill a major need for our customers. We couldn't be more excited to continue this partnership," said Tom McDougall, President & CEO at High Point Networks.

The Arctic Wolf Partner of the Year Awards began in 2018 as a way to honor top-performing partners for their achievements in helping organizations improve their security operations through the use of Arctic Wolf solutions and for their commitment to shared success through a partnership with Arctic Wolf.

"In a year full of shifting business and operational dynamics, the Arctic Wolf partner community rose to the occasion to help their customers transform their security posture by embracing security operations," said Will Briggs, Vice President of Americas Channels and Program, Arctic Wolf. "Our Partner of the Year Awards recognize and celebrate these outstanding efforts, and we congratulate the winners on their significant achievements."

High Point Networks was founded in 2003 by Tom McDougall and Justin Fetsch. The company was created with the specific intent of solving technology challenges and building a team that is laser focused on helping our clients achieve long term measurable results rather than on one-time transactions. Helping others, building strong relationships, and working together will always be stitched into our DNA regarding how we work with our teammates, clients, and partners.
